

TWENTY MORE STORIES TO KEEP

20 Extra Questions for Dad

Original prompts for the memories, small details, and life lessons that deserve a place on the page.

PRINT · WRITE · KEEP

01 What sound from your childhood can take you back instantly?

02 Who made you feel capable when you were young, and how?

03 What was a small luxury in your family when you were growing up?

04 Tell me about a day you got into harmless trouble.

05 What place did you go when you needed time to think?

06 Which family saying still comes to mind, and who used it?

07 What job taught you something you still use today?

08 When did you first feel truly independent?

09 What ordinary family ritual do you now realize was special?

10 Tell me about a friendship that changed the direction of your life.

11 What is one decision you made slowly and one you made in an instant?

12 What did courage look like at a difficult point in your life?

13 Which mistake eventually became a useful lesson?

14 What skill did you learn by watching someone else?

15 What made you laugh the hardest in your twenties?

16 What did becoming a dad teach you about your own father?

17 Which moment as a father would you happily live again?

18 What do you hope our family never stops doing?

19 What belief have you changed your mind about over the years?

20 If we read this together ten years from now, what would you want me to remember?
